Important information

- Unless otherwise specified in the special provisions relating to the individual insurance components, the insurance applies worldwide.
- The sums insured apply per event. The "data retrieval and recovery" insurance benefit is limited to two claims per calendar year.
- There is no excess.
- Only available to people who are permanently resident in Switzerland.
- The insurance policy is extended automatically unless it is terminated at least three months prior to the expiry date.

The General Terms and Conditions of Insurance apply. The specific insured risks and benefits and exclusions or benefit restrictions for our insurance are outlined in the General Terms and Conditions of Insurance (GTC) at www.allianz-travel.ch/tc.

Online buyer protection

Financial compensation for items for private use purchased by the insured persons via the Internet:

- which were damaged or lost during shipping.
- which were not delivered or only partially delivered by the seller.
- whose condition, materials, product generation or brand were wrongly declared by the seller.
- which were not taken back by the seller and the insured person was not refunded despite having a right to a refund.
- which were damaged or misplaced during the return.

Data recovery

The cost of data recovery will be covered in the following situations:

- contamination of insured property by harmful viruses or malware
- loss of data from insured property due to technical faults or damage
